TWINTHOS · OCTOBER 2026

Who to call. What to charge.

Named people. Named companies. The odds on each one. And the bottlenecks that stop the deal.

They pay consultants to do admin.

A recruiter is paid to place people. Most of their week goes on paperwork that places nobody.

40%

of consultant time spent on admin at a 25-consultant finance agency — measured, not estimated.

Admin per vacancy	17.7 hrs
Wasted per recruiter, weekly	~14 hrs
Timesheets at one 12-person agency	200/week

Innovate247 case study; Totaljobs via People Management (Aug 2025); Allsorter analysis.

One sentence. No jargon.

> “Your consultants lose about 40% of their week to admin. I take one of those jobs off them in two weeks, and charge less than the hours cost.”

You are not selling AI. You are selling a consultant's week back.

What to charge, by their size.

THEIR SIZE	YOU CHARGE
10–25 consultants	£1.5k–£2.5k/mo
25–60 consultants	£3k–£5k/mo
Multi-branch group	£1.2k/branch/mo

ALWAYS OPEN WITH THIS

£1,500 fixed. Two weeks. One named task. Not a retainer — a paid proof.

The maths, at 25 consultants.

Where the work actually jams.

1. Timesheets. Photos on WhatsApp, retyped into Bullhorn, checked against shifts, exported to Xero.
2. Right-to-work packs. 200–500 placements a month, each needing a compliant record.
3. CV formatting. Same CV, rewritten into every client's template.
4. Reference chasing. Email, wait, chase, wait.
5. Bullhorn data entry. Every task keyed twice.

What will actually stop you.

1. No track record. Fixed by the £1,500 pilot, nothing else.
2. “Bullhorn does that.” It does not read WhatsApp photos.
3. Compliance fear. Say plainly what you don't touch.
4. Seasonality. Education agencies are dead in August.
5. A competitor. Innovate247 already sells this in the UK.

Two things changed this month.

HEAT RECRUITMENT

Acquired by Resource Group Holdings on 7 October 2026. The owner you'd have called is gone. Leave it 90 days.

INNOVATE247

A UK firm already selling timesheet and admin automation to recruitment agencies, with published case studies. You are not first. Price and locality are your only edges.
